Dear visitors...

Hello and welcome to our Voie des Vignes! This is where it all begins. This wine-growing landscape, fascinating in all seasons, is the pride of our region, and the fruit of man's activity. For centuries, these vines have been the site of our daily work, and every day of the year, men and women work throughout these plots.

Rules of conduct in our vineyards

Stay on the Voie des Vignes.
Don't go through rows of vine or private paths.

Watch out for tractors!

Vineyards are not playgrounds.

Don't allow dogs to roam in the vineyards. Take your litter with you.

Don't pick grapes

Don't park at entrances to the vineyards to keep access free for tractors and other agricultural vehicles

How it works

Simply choose a route on foot, by bike, by canoe or even by car from the 193 options available on the platform. Then, once you're at the starting point, the device's GPS takes over, pointing you in the right direction and, on your favourite walks, triggering audio-guided information on chronicles on the surrounding landscape.

FAQ : VISITING TO BEAUNE REGION

Can you taste in the Hospices de Beaune cellars?

The Hospices de Beaune estate can be contacted in advance for visits and tastings, which are reserved for professionals. However, it is possible to taste during the weekend of the Wine Sale, when there are sufficient quantities of wine. For your stay, I can give you the Cellar Guide and tell you which ones are nearby and open, and even book services at our ticket office.

What the best time of year for a stay in Burgundy?

You can be visit Burgundy all year round. Life in the vineyards never stops. In spring, nature wakes up and the vineyards are in full bloom. The villages are alive with festivals. Summer lends itself to wine tasting, in the cellars sheltered from the heat, or on the terrace enjoying the fine weather. Autumn brings the magnificent colours of the vines. It's also the time for major events: the Wine Sale, the Fascinating Weekend, the Fantastic Picnic. As for winter, time stands still and people enjoy the present moment. We take care of our vines and ourselves.

What's the best way to admire the glazed tile roofs of the Musée de l'Hôtel-Dieu - Hospices de Beaune?

The courtyard of the Hôtel-Dieu is an integral part of the Museum. You can access it with your admission ticket. This visit is a must. You'll discover the fascinating history of this place, once a hospital, born out of the passion of a legendary couple: Nicolas Rolin and Guigone de Salins.

Which are Beaune's biggest wineries?

Beaune's largest wine cellars are those of Patriarche. They are located in the heart of the town centre and can be visited in part. A wine tasting concludes the visit. Many other cellars are worth a visit in Beaune and throughout the Beaune region.
